Rome, April 28, N. S.

CArdinal Borgheſe having accepted the Dignity of Protector of the German Empire, acquainted the Pope therewith in an Audience. The Cardinal del Giudice has ordered to be taken off from the Arms erected before his Palace, the Imperial Eagle, and has kept only the Auſtrian Arms and thoſe of the Kingdoms and States poſſeſſed by the Queen of Hungary, with thoſe of Medicis and Naples, Sicily and Jeruſalem. The Pope being informed that the Spaniards had made conſiderable Magazines in Ferrara, and guarded them by a Picquet of 50 of their Soldiers, ordered the Cardinal Legate to oblige them to tranſport forthwith thoſe Proviſions ſome where elſe, and to drive the Spaniards out of the Town, for which Purpoſe he gave him Leave to ſend for a Detachment of the Garriſon from Fort Urbain; he has likewiſe complained to Cardinal Acquaviva of this Breach of Promiſe, the Spaniards having engaged that none of their Troops ſhould come into the Towns of Rome, Civita Vecchia, Loretto, Ancona, Ferrara, or Boulogne. Part of the Duke de Montemar's Army have taken Poſſeſſion in the Ferrareſe of the Eſtates of Sanmartina and Diamentina, belonging to the Duke of Modena, and have ſent Parties to Ponte de Lago Scuro, and the Neighbourhood, to view the moſt convenient Paſſages of the Po. The Auſtrians on their Side have ſent 500 Men and ſome Horſe to Revere, where they are fortifying themſelves. On the Side of Boulogne the Spaniards are advanced as far as Caſtel Bologneſe, and it ſeems to be their Intention to go in a few Days in queſt of Count Traun's Army. It is aſſured that the Duke de Montemar has received the neceſſary Money to begin the Operations of the Campaign. The Duke of Caſtropignano has been at Rimini to confer with the Duke de Montemar. There is as yet no Advice of the Neapolitan Troops being on their March, in order to join the Army of the Spaniſh General.

Genoa, May 2. Two Days ago a Courier from Antibes brought Advice, that Don Phillip arrived there the 29th paſt, and that about 400 Spaniſh Horſe had likewiſe reach'd that Place, the Remainder, to the Number of 5000, with 10000 Infantry, being expected daily. Yeſterday came in a Packet from Barcelona, with Advice, that Orders were come from Court for all the Barks that were there, to proceed directly for Antibes, where the Troops that are marching by Land are to embark. They write from Marſeilles, that four Gallies and two Frigates were going for Barbary, to adjuſt the Differences between the French Court and the Bey of Tunis and Algiers; that the French Admiral at Toulon had given Liberty to Part of the Seamen to retire to their Families for a few Days, and that the Spaniards were almoſt refitted, but in great Want of Men, having loſt above one Third by Deſertion. Private Councils are every Day held here about the Affairs of Corſica, which are ſaid to be in a bad Situation. The Duke of Miranda, Ambaſſador from the King of Naples, is ſtill here, waiting to compliment Don Phillip on his Arrival in Italy; from whence it is conjectured that he may land in ſome Port of this Republick. A Veſſel is arrived at Leghorn in 48 Hours from Toulon, which brings Advice, that Orders had been given for all the Seamen to return to their reſpective Ships.

Olmutz, April 29. On the 22d in the Evening, the Peaſants of Mirau and Miglitz brought to our Army at Olſchan, 19 Pruſſians whom they made Priſoners. The Peaſants being informed that our Army was in the Neighbourhood, ſurrounded this Detachment, and required them to ſurrender, but they having made ſome Oppoſition, the Peaſants killed immediately four upon the Place, and wounded five or ſix of them, and had certainly killed them all, if ſome of our Huſſars had not come in. Theſe Peaſants deſired to have 100 Huſſars, with whom they were ſure they could defend the Road of Leutomiſchel, ſo as not one Pruſſian could paſs, and offered at the ſame time to entertain them at their own Charge. On the 23d we had Intelligence at Olſchan, that the Enemy having been informed of the Approach of the Queen's Army, had abandoned the Town of Olmutz in the Night, in great Confuſion, and had retired towards Sternberg, whither they were purſued by a Thouſand of our Huſſars, ſome Companies of Grenadiers and Carabineers, and a Thouſand Croats. The heavy Artillery from Brinn, which was coming hither, was ordered back. Sixty four Pruſſian Deſerters arrived here in the Afternoon, and in the Evening 80 more came to Olmutz. The 24th, the Huſſars who purſued the Enemy, took from them 16 Field Pieces and ſome Baggage Waggons, and in the Afternoon they carried off four heavy Cannon, and 45 Waggons, after having entirely defeated two Battallions that covered the Baggage. Towards Evening his Serene Highneſs Prince Charles, followed by ſome Generals, arrived here. It is paſt Belief how much the Inhabitants are incenſed againſt the Pruſſians. Moravia is now free of the Enemy; the Barbarities they have committed there are not to be imagined. It is aſſured that the King of Pruſſia is at Chrudim in Bohemia, with a Body of 4000 Men. This Afternoon came in here 75 Pruſſian Deſerters. The Proviſions found in this this Town conſiſt in 576 Meaſures of Wheat, 176 of Rye, 12946 Quintals of Meal, 3260 Portions of Bread, 672 1 half Meaſures of Barley, 2310 Quintals of Hay, 736 1 half Meaſures of Oats, 40167 Truſſes of Straw, 72 Quintals of Salt, and 89 empty Sacks. The 25th we had an Account, that the Enemy had likewiſe abandoned Sternberg, the Peaſants purſuing them furiouſly, to be revenged for the Damages they have ſuffered by them. Deſerters arrive here 20 or 30 at a Time, and aſſure that half of the Enemy's Army will deſert on this Occaſion; but moſt of thoſe who fall into the Hands of the Peaſants are killed. It is aſſured that a Garriſon of 3000 Men will be left in this Town under the Command of General Roth, who is to fortify the ſame, and that the greateſt Part of the Army will return to Bohemia. The ſame Day we had an Account, that General Nadaſty was got into Sternberg, and had found there 200 Quintals of Meal, 2500 Quintals of Oats and Straw, 470 Meaſures of Rye, 440 Meaſures of Barley, and 660 Meaſures of Oats. The Cannon taken from the Enemy in different Places, conſiſt in 32 Braſs or Iron Guns, and 17 Waggons of Powder and Ammunition. The 26th, Forty more Deſerters arrived. Our Companies of Grenadiers and Carabineers are ordered to come back; but the Hungarians and Croats are ſtill purſuing the Enemy. A Pruſſian Captain and a Lieutenant were brought in to Day. The 27th, 30 Deſerters more came to the Army. The 28th our Army marched, and began to file off in Columns; the General Quarters is to Day at Proſnitz. Our Huſſars have brought in five Officers and 129 Subalterns and Soldiers, whom they made Priſoners. What remained of the Body of Pruſſians, are cantoned between Troppau and Jagerudorf. The Peaſants and Huſſars who accompanied them, divided between them the Booty they had taken.

Vienna, May 2. Prince Charles is ſuppoſed to have been to the Right of Brinn as Yeſterday, in his March towards Bohemia. To be able to put the greater Force into the Field, all the Hungarian Foot of the Inſurrection will be placed in the reſpective Garriſon Towns of Moravia, the two Auſtrias and Bavaria. A proper Body of Obſervation is left in the Paſſes and Borders of Upper Sileſia, Moravia and Hungary. Prince Charles is expected here from the Army this Evening or To-morrow Morning, to ſtay 12 or 15 Hours only. Count Cowenzel ſets out To-morrow as Miniſter to ſeveral Courts and Circles of the Empire.

Marſeilles, May 2. Don Phillip departed the 26th paſt from Toulon, and it was ſuppoſed he would lie the 29th or 30th at Antibes. The next Day, the 27th in the Morning, Toulon was alarmed from the Signal Houſe, by a Fire and 28 Signals, occaſioned by the Appearance of a Squadron of Engliſh Men of War, which in the Afternoon advanced within a League of that Place, ſo that it was eaſily deſcried; and three Ships were obſerved to come as far as the Frecrits, two large Rocks within Sight of Toulon, and from whence the Town and Road lie open. Upon this News all the Seamen who had Leave to lie on Shore, were ordered to return on board their reſpective Ships, and every Body were ordered to their Poſts, and Detachments of Soldiers were ſent in the Night to the Batteries and Fortifications along the Coaſt. The 29th in the Evening the Signal Houſe here gave the ſame Alarm.

Dreſden, May 9, N. S. The Saxons were no ſooner arrived in the Circle of Leuthmeritz, than M. Sechelle let them know that they muſt not ſtay in Bohemia, and ſhewed for his Authority a Reſcript to the ſame Purpoſe, ſigned by the Emperor. Whereupon this Miniſtry diſpatched a Courier the 5th Inſtant to Francfort. It is generally ſuppoſed that Prince Dieterich has been defeated in his Retreat from Olmutz. It is likewiſe reported from Prague, that a Detachment of about 30 French has been driven from a Poſt on the Jaſawa, and that the Auſtrians, purſuing their Advantage, have taken Piſchieli, where their Enemies had formed a Magazine. The French here ſay that their Succour from Prague came Time enough to ſave the Magazine, and repulſed the Auſtrians. The Epidemical Diſtemper ſtill rages in Bohemia; Lieutenant General Polaſtrone died of it laſt Week, an Officer much eſteemed in the French Army.

Hambourg, May 11. A Letter from Stockholm of the 1ſt Inſtant N. S. mentions, that a Committee was appointed to examine into the Accuſations which were brought againſt Colonel Logerkrantz; that the ſeveral Members had taken their Oath accordingly, and that the Affair which was variouſly talk'd of, and with great Uncertainty, was conducted with the utmoſt Secrecy.

Hague, May 15, N. S. The laſt Letters from Bavaria bring an Account, that the Auſtrians who had evacuated Munich the 29th paſt, have again taken Poſſeſſion of that Place under the Command of General Berenclau, after a very ſhort Reſiſtance on the Part of the Burghers. We hear from Dreſden, that the King of Poland ſet out for Frauſtadt the 10th Inſtant N. S. and is expected back the 19th, when it is thought Marſhal Belliſle will be likewiſe there.

Kenſington, May 6.

This Day M. le Baron de Haſlang, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Emperor, had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, in his Apartment.

And afterwards a private Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, and Louiſa, in their Apartment; to both which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, April 21, 1742.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleaſed to direct, That all ſuch diſabled Seamen as have been nominated to be received into the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office, on Tueſday the Firſt of June next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.
